Declaration and authorization

1. I / We declare that all information and particulars contained above are true and complete to the best of my/our knowledge and belief and they are made without reservation of any kind.

2. I / We understand and agree the following points regarding the arrangement of my/our personal information collected or held by Europ Assistance and its subsidiaries and partner companies:

A) The personal information of customers (including policy owners, insured persons, beneficiaries, premium payers, trustees, policy assignees and claimants) collected or held by Europ Assistance and its subsidiaries and partner companies ("Company") may be used by the Company for the following obligatory purposes necessary in providing services to the customers (otherwise the Company is unable to provide services to customers who fail to provide the required information):

I. to process, investigate (and assist others to investigate) and determine insurance applications, insurance claims and provide ongoing insurance services.

II. to process requests for payment, and for direct debit authorization.

III. to manage any claim, action and/or proceedings brought against the customers, and to exercise the Company's rights as more particularly defined in the applicable policy wording, including but not limited to the subrogation right.

IV. to compile statistics or use for accounting and actuarial purposes.

V. to meet the disclosure requirements of any local or foreign law, regulations, codes or guidelines binding on the Company and conduct matching procedures where necessary.

VI. to comply with the legitimate requests or orders of the courts and regulators in applicable countries.

VII. to collect debts.

VIII. to facilitate the Company's authorized service providers to provide services to the Company and/or the customers for the above purposes; and

IX. to enable an actual or proposed assignee of the Company to evaluate the transaction intended to be the subject of the assignment.

B) The Company may provide any personal information of customers to the following parties for the obligatory purposes:

I. companies within the Company Group, or any other company carrying on insurance or reinsurance related business, or an intermediary.

II. any agent, contractor or third-party service provider who provides administrative, telecommunications, computer, payment or other services to the Company in connection with the operation of its business.

III. third party service providers including legal advisors, accountants, investigators, loss adjusters, reinsurers, medical and rehabilitation consultants, surveyors, specialists, repairers, and data processors.

IV. credit reference agencies, and, in the event of default, any debt collection agencies or companies carrying on claim or investigation services.

V. any person to whom the Company is under an obligation to make disclosure under the requirements of any law binding on the Company or any of its associated companies and for the purposes of any regulations, codes or guidelines issued by governmental, regulatory, or other authorities with which the Company or any of its associated companies are expected to comply.

VI. any person pursuant to any order of a court of competent jurisdiction; and

VII. any actual or proposed assignee of the Company or transferee of the Company's rights in respect of the policy owners.

3. I / We hereby authorize any physician, medical practitioners, hospitals or clinics by whom or where I / We have been observed or treated to give full particulars about my/our health to the Company or its agents.

4. I / We hereby further authorize any parties, including but not limited to police and government authorities, airlines, travel agents, insurance companies etc. who are in possession of my/our insurance proposal information, claim information or any related information to release part or all of the information about the subject or related incidents of injury, loss or damage to the Company or its agents.

5. A photocopy of this authorization shall be considered as effective and valid as the original.
