1. It is Cigna's global corporate policy to comply with the economic sanctions rules related to individuals, entities, and countries applicable to its global business operations, including but not limited to those imposed by the United Nations, the European Commission, the United States, and Canada. Therefore, Cigna will not offer coverage or pay benefits to or on behalf of, any insured member if doing so would violate these sanctions rules. In addition, restrictions will apply to claims incurred in sanctioned countries where there is no relevant, approved license from the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control. Among the restrictions, Cigna will not cover: (1) elective or pre-scheduled treatment in sanctioned countries; or (2) insured members considered "ordinarily resident" in a sanctioned country. Insured members are considered ordinarily resident if they visit a sanctioned country for a period of longer than six (6) weeks over the course of any twelve (12) month period.
2. Cigna will bear any charges applied to the reimbursement of claims imposed by the remitting bank. However, any charges that may be imposed by the beneficiary's bank / other third-party provider and/or any currency conversion charges, will be borne by the beneficiary. Cigna recommends that you confirm any bank charges with your banking provider.
3. The claim form should be submitted within 120 days of start date of the treatment along with all original receipts/invoices as per the policy membership agreement. Claims will not be considered if not submitted within 120 days of treatment being received.
